WEST VIRGINIA ITEMS OF NEWS.

N. & W. Line Leads.

Charleston, June 16.—Reports received at the department of mines today show that two million tons of coal were shipped over the Norfolk & Western railroad last month. The coke started along the line was 145,560 tons.

Mine Car Plant Starts Monday.

Part of the plant of the Kenova Mine Car company, at Kenova, began operations Monday. That part of the works which began is the foundry which makes wheels for mine cars. The plant will not begin turning out completed cars until a few weeks more.

Runs of Timber in the Guyan Valley Will Soon be a Thing of the Past.

The Harboursville, (W. Va.) News says:

There was a good rise in Guyan river last Sunday and a large run of loose timber and rafted logs and ties were brought out from Lincoln and Logan counties. Several of these rafts were laid up above town Sunday night.

It seems that the big timber runs in this stream are a thing of the past. For fifty years or more millions of feet of timber have come down Guyan river at every log tide. Thousands of men were engaged in the pursuit of timbering, either in the woods or on the river in running the logs to market.

But this is now all changed. Most of the timber from the upper Guyan valley is being shipped by rail to Cincinnati and Huntington, where big saw-mills cut it into lumber. The timber on most of the big tracts in Logan county has been cut away, and but little remains to be marketed.

The run of logs in Guyan are not now what they use to be. The timber is gone from the Guyan Valley.

Jack Ringess Dead.

Jack Ringess, one of the oldest inhabitants of Matewan, W. Va., dropped dead at his home early Tuesday morning. Mr. Ringess had complained for several days of feeling ill but it was not looked upon by his family as being of a serious nature. His death was quite a shock to the family and people of the town. He is survived by a wife and five children.

Mrs. Moore Taken To Baltimore.

On Wednesday, June 14, Mrs. J. M. Moore, wife of Logan's genial postmaster, left the city for Baltimore, where she will enter a hospital for treatment for an ailment from which she has been suffering for some time. Her many friends here will hope and expect a speedy improvement in her condition, and her early return to good health.—Logan Democrat.

Kentucky Fugitive Captured at Yohyn.

Chief of police Sizemore of Prestonsburg, Ky., and Chief Hibbard Hatfield, of Logan, W. Va., went to Yohyn Wednesday and arrested Bill Collins, whom it is alleged, escaped from Kentucky after shooting Chief Sizemore about four months ago.

Collins was found in the home of a friend, and when approached by the officers threatened Sizemore with a double barreled gun. Hatfield promptly interfered and succeeded in wresting the gun from the Kentuckian before he could pull the trigger. His companion showed indications of coming to his friend's aid with a single barreled shot gun, but he also was promptly disarmed.

Collins was taken back to Prestonsburg by Sizemore on the evening train. It is alleged that Collins has been engaged in "dehorning" Cole and Crane's timber in the vicinity of Yohyn, W. Va. for some time.—Logan Democrat.

Cupid Has Been Busy in Ceredo.

Cupid has been busy in Ceredo. It was apparent Thursday night when three weddings coupled the attention of that staid, historic town.

Oddly enough, each of the wedding ceremonies was performed by Rev. R. F. Akers, widely known Baptist minister. The ceremonies were performed within the space of a few hours. Following are those who were married:

Miss Lulu Harris to Mr. Edward Hazlett. Ceremony at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. H. Carter.

Miss Minnie Ferris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferris, to Mr. Orland M. Hunt at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Ella Sullivan to Mr. Daniel Hawes.

All of these were residents of Ceredo and will continue to make their home there.

H. G. Sams Dies in Logan.

H. G. Sams died Saturday at his home at Logan, where he went to engage in the lumber business with his father-in-law, J. Eubank. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and of Johnson Memorial church, Huntington.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Olive Hill, Ky., and three brothers, G. W. Sams, of St. Albans; William H. Sams, of Nevada, Mo.; and Warren F. Sams, of Grandview.

Toast To State.

One of the unique observances of West Virginia's birthday, June 20, was created by H. L. Thompson, of Huntington, in the form of a toast to West Virginia. The words of the toast are printed on cardboard in gold, and the cards are decorated with hand painted mountain laurel, the state flower. The toast is as follows:

Here's to the land of laurel and pine,
Where men are brave and women divine;
Where crystal stream and mountain peak
Reflect their tints in many a cheek;
Where honor, truth and love make great

West Virginia, the Mountain State.

Mr. and Mrs. Thacker, of Whites creek, W. Va., are leaving today for Arizona where they will make their home.

Complaint that the flower "Queen of Huntington" is not the beautiful crimson hue that it had been represented to be made. It was said that the flower comes in all sorts of fancy hues such as old rose, yellow and pink. It is added that the flower, instead of being a fancy Burbank phenom is nothing more than the garden variety of zinnia.

Harrison Transferred.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 15.—In Federal court today the case of Jeff R. Harrison, of San Antonio, Texas, charged with robbery of a Baltimore and Ohio train near here last October was transferred to Martinsburg. A special term of court will be held at the latter city on September 12, at which Harrison will be tried.

Infirmities incident to old age caused the death Thursday night of John Esque, 90 years old, at his home in Huntington, W. Va. The venerable man was a member of Camp Garnett G. A. R. and one of the oldest men in the city. Besides eleven children, over one hundred grand and great grand children survive.

Transfer Case to Huntington.

Charleston, W. Va., June 15.—Noah Lester and Linko Blankenship, two of twelve Mingo-co. men indicted in Federal court yesterday, to-day entered pleas of guilty to the charge of violating the election laws during election day in 1914. Judge Keller deferred sentence until the September term of court in Huntington. Bond was fixed at $2,500 each and was furnished.

It is the desire of the prosecution to dispose of all these election fraud cases at the same time and the trials of a number of the twelve indicted will not be held during the present term of court.

Trial of the $10,000 damage suit of W. L. Abbott, Jr., of Philadelphia, against Governor H. D. Hatfield, was today continued until June 28. Abbott charges that the Governor assaulted him on a train at Point Pleasant one year ago and caused him to be arrested and imprisoned on the assumption that he had stolen the Governor's Bible.

W. F. Horton was found guilty of having robbed the post office at Mason City, Horton was arrested some time ago at the entrance of the penitentiary from which he had been released after serving a term for another Federal offense. He was indicted for the Mason City robbery together with Lee Lester. Lester pleaded guilty, but is serving a sentence of eleven years in the Ohio penitentiary for post office robberies committed in that state.

$288,000 CHECK FOR BACK TAXES.

Lexington, Ky., June 9.—Sheriff Thomas C. Bradley received to-day a check for $288,000 in settlement of back taxes on the estate of the late L. V. Harkness, in accordance with the agreed judgment recorded in the County Court here last week. The State's portion of the back taxes amounting, with the penalty, to $103,750, was sent to the State Treasurer at Frankfort, and Sheriff Bradley held a consultation with County Judge F. A. Bullock relative to the distribution of the portion which goes to the county, and the various county officials concerned in the case.

The County Treasurer will receive $100,000, the county schools $50,000 and Sheriff Bradley $38,000 on account of the penalty of 20 per cent. for delinquency in paying the tax. In the judgment entered by the court County Attorney Hogan Yancey was also awarded $36,000, which is to be paid pro rata from the county's and school's portions.

With the receipt of the check to-day the county will wait the final legal settlement of the residence of Mr. Harkness, over which there is contention by the States of Kentucky, New York and California.

In the New York case officials set up a claim not only for taxes on the more than $100,000,000 of personally held by Mr. Harkness, but for an inheritance tax of several million dollars on the ground that Mr. Harkness' legal residence was in that city.

CASH IN ADVANCE

PLAN TO BE ADOPTED

On October 15th, 1916, the Big Sandy News Subscription List will be on a New Basis, and the Paper will be Sent Only until the Date Paid in Advance.

INCREASED COST OF PRODUCTION FORCES THIS CHANGE.

As announced in the above headline the Big Sandy News will change its policy in handling the subscription list. We are compelled either to increase the subscription to $1.50 per year or to take steps that will stop all leaks and waste. We hope by doing the latter to keep the subscription price at one dollar.

We are making announcement of our new policy several months in advance of its adoption so that all our friends and subscribers will have ample time to get on the new basis.

It has been customary from "time immemorial" almost, for country papers to extend credit to subscribers and to continue sending the paper until death, poverty, disease, hopeless delinquency, or an earthquake caused a break. This is bad business and oftentimes very unsatisfactory. Some people get the impression that the publisher is trying to force the paper on them. This is one thing the publisher of the Big Sandy News can truthfully say he has never intended nor had any desire to do. In soliciting we do not even insist strongly upon anyone subscribing for the paper, because we never want to push it upon any person. Our efforts are directed chiefly to making a paper worth the subscription price. Nevertheless, a few people seem to think the paper is being forced upon them when it continues beyond the date paid for.

On the other hand, we have had a number of subscribers to resent our action in stopping the paper at the expiration of the period paid for, saying it was a reflection on their credit. This is the source from which we anticipate most of the trouble that is likely to come in changing to a strictly cash in advance system. But when the change is made it will be absolutely necessary to enforce it impartially. The mailing list will be in charge of an employee who doesn't know any better than to stop every subscription at its paid expiration.

Although as above stated, the proposition has two sides, we believe our friends and patrons will like the new system better. We ask their kind cooperation in establishing this more business-like plan.

Subscription Rates.

Sent One Year to any U. S. address, postage paid.....$1.00.
Six months, postage paid..... .50.
